Information from an unknown outside source dated at New York, New York, February 1, 1941, indicates that Louise Thompson, a vice president of the International Workers Order, one of the leading Communist setups in America, was present at a secret meeting of "Red" leaders which was raided, at which time Louise Thompson left a small handbag filled with various material relative to the Communist Party, among which was a list of names, apparently the personal property of Louise Thompson. complete domination of the IWO by the Communist Party in this area.
Subject was National Secretary of the IWO in 1940.

There was also affixed to Chicago file 100-4092, a page from an article entitled "Cost to Coast with Louise Thompson" dated November, 1938, from the New Order, 85th Avenue, New York City.

During the course of a recent investigation of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, Chicago file 100-1, the writer had occasion to review his marriage affidavit dated December 3, 1940, which was on file in the Bureau of Vital Statistics for the purpose of obtaining birth data pertaining to this individual. The Bureau records reflected that MR. PATTERSON obtained a license to marry a MRS. LOUISE THURMAN. As the necessary birth data was not available, Agent later interviewed PATTERSON under pretext and he, in addition to supplying the birth data concerning himself, verified he married a MRS. LOUISE THURMAN, a widow.

A review of a memorandum from Confidential Informant in file 100-1, reflected that MR. WILLIAM L. PATTERSON married LOUISE THOMPSON. The source of this information has later been determined as an article which appeared in the Daily Worker on September 29, 1940, which article contained a picture of MR. PATTERSON and his new bride, LOUISE THOMPSON. b7C

A review of the International Workers Order file, 61-174-163, Special Agent of the Chicago Office on July 17, 1941, reported:

"On May 10, 1941, Informant was able to ascertain that LOUISE THOMPSON, who is a high official of the IWO in this territory resides at the Vincennes Hotel, 601 East 36th Street, Chicago.

"On May 10, 1941, she was quite pleased to receive a letter from MR. PATTERSON in New York City, who congratulated her on the fine work she was doing in Chicago and said he hoped to be in Chicago in a few days to discuss the Negro situation."

b7C

In a later report, dated August 19, 1941, serial 173 of the same file, Agent reported:

"Confidential Informant stated that LOUISE THOMPSON was referred to as MRS. PATTERSON, further strengthen-

b2

his belief that she is now married to WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, National Vice-President of the ILD, long well known as a Communist in this area, Executive of the Board of the Communist Party, and long official of the National Negro Congress. Informant stated that he believed they resided at the Vincennes Hotel."

b7C Agent recently recontacted MR. PATTERSON by telephone at his apartment in the Vincennes Hotel, recalling to his mind the recent conversation between the Agent and himself and advised him that since the Bureau of Vital Statistics had changed its location, it was necessary to review the various marriage records on file and to bring them up to date. Agent in the course of this interview described himself as [redacted] This telephonic conversation took place on September 3, 1941.

MR. PATTERSON advised that MRS. PATTERSON was born in Chicago, that she was formerly MRS. LOUISE THURMAN, and that her maiden name was LOUISE TOLLS. Agent advised him that inasmuch as he was well known at the Election Board, information was on hand to the effect that he was married to LOUISE THOMPSON, to which question MR. PATTERSON responded that the information was correct, that LOUISE TOLLS always used the name of her stepfather. He stated that his name was THOMPSON and that is how his wife came to be known as LOUISE THOMPSON.

It is to be noted that although MR. PATTERSON made out an affidavit for a marriage license and received said license, no record of the actual marriage is on file at the Bureau of Vital Statistics. The marriage affidavit Certificate No. 1652548, reflected that MRS. LOUISE THURMAN was born September 9, 1901, and described her as a widow. Her place of birth was not indicated, but this information was obtained through MR. PATTERSON in the course of the interview.

b2 The Chicago files were reviewed for further information concerning the background of LOUISE THOMPSON. A review of the International Labor Defense file, Chicago file 100-1519, described that Special Agent [redacted] in a report dated July 17, 1941, (serial 19) mentioned the Subject as a high official in the IWO of Chicago. b7D

A further review was made of the files and it was reflected that Confidential Informant [redacted] furnished information that LOUISE THOMPSON was a member of the International Labor Defense and that the source of this information was the Daily Worker dated August 4, 1933. It was also reflected that Subject was a director of education and culture of the National Council of the League for the Struggle for the Negro Race, and was elected at a meeting held at Harlem, New York, October 29, 1933. He stated that she was arrested as a Negro organizer for the ILD and that the source of this information was the Daily Worker dated May 19, 1934, but that the charges were dropped and she was released according to the Daily Worker dated May 30, 1934.

The dates of these meetings were November 5, 1937, St. George Hall, 1513 Quarry Avenue N.W., Grand Rapids, Michigan, and November 2, 1937, 188 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois.

There was also a handbill contained in the files entitled "In Defense Of Our Liberties" which announced that LOUISE THOMPSON, a national leader of the International Workers Order and member of the General Executive Board, would speak on "Civil Liberties in the IWO" on November 24, 1939 in the Peoples Auditorium, 2457 West Chicago Avenue. In addition, there is a clipping from the Mother Bloor 75th Birthday Souvenir dated July, 1937, which clipping is a greeting from LOUISE THOMPSON to Mother BLOOR in the name of "the women members of the IWO who are happy to honor her on this occasion of her 75th birthday."

Dear Sir:

Enclosed herewith are copies of a list of individuals received from an unknown outside source dated at New York, New York, February 1, 1941. This source indicates that Louise Thompson, a vice president of the International Workers Order, one of the leading Communist setups in America, was present at a secret meeting of "Red" leaders which was raided, at which time Louise Thompson left a small bag filled with various material relative to the Communist Party, among which was a list of names, apparently the personal property of Louise Thompson. It might be mentioned that Louise Thompson is a negress and that the International Workers Order is one of the wealthiest Communist setups in the country, as they have a financial reserve of almost two million dollars. It is stated that Louise Thompson is a well educated negress, has acted as organizer for the Communist Party in many sections of the United States, and spent several months in England and almost a year in Russia. It is stated that it is not known what the attached list represents; that there are many names of individuals on it who are prominent in this country and who have visited other countries during the past few years.

This list is being furnished you for your information and any action you may deem necessary.

While talking with ASAC Hosteny, Chicago, regarding other matters, he requested that consideration be given to the installation of a technical surveillance on the above individual. She stated that she is the wife of William L. Patterson who is one of the leaders in the Communist Party movement in that area. The telephone is listed in her name. Both subject and her husband are negroes.

She is presently District Secretary of the International Workers Order. She and her husband are nationally known members of the Communist Party and are active in all its functions.
